Experience 2 Yorkshire Gems In 1 day!

Looking for a NEW and inspiring day out for your group?
Why not combine a visit to the award winning
National Railway Museum with a visit to York!

Please find below a suggested itinerary to help you plan your next group visit:

Morning – After parking the coach onsite at the NRM, encounter our fascinating collections up close! Ensure that you don't miss the following icons during your visit: the record-breaking Mallard, innovative Japanese Bullet Train, replica of Stephenson's Rocket, Chinese locomotive, the Royal Carriages used by Queen Victoria and the Duchess of Hamilton Exhibition 'Streamlined.'

Engage in a variety of talks and demonstrations, delve into the archives of the NRM collections in Search Engine library or how about a ride on the Simulator!

Afternoon – Relax in our restaurant Brief Encounter, where you will find a variety of tasty home made Yorkshire products on offer for lunch or morning coffee. Don't forget your FREE meal for the Coach Driver!

Late afternoon – Take the Road Train into York city centre for a guided walking tour and/or a walk along the city walls. Spend the rest of your afternoon enjoying an array of speciality shopping in Stonegate and the Shambles.
